THE PALM DUBAI

about RAFFLES

“Luxury is not just about what you do, it’s about how you feel”

Leading from the future

Raffles hotels occupy the most sought-after addresses globally, such as Singapore, London, Paris, Maldives, Seychelles, Dubai and more...

Each one meticulously captures the essence of its location, blended with best-in-class craftsmanship and creativity from around the world.

Steeped in history and each defined by the legendary Raffles service, they are part of an exclusive lifestyle collection, revered the world over.

The Traveller's Palm

RAFFLES' SYMBOL OF HOSPITALITY

If curious about the lapel pin worn by Raffles' employees, designed by British penman David Horridge and crafted in a single stroke, it is the symbol of the Raffles brand.

Those familiar with Raffles Singapore will remember the majestic and graceful Traveller's Palms found throughout its gardens, as well as the singular tree's appearance, fan-shaped with enormous paddle-shaped leaves, that are borne on long petioles, and aligned in a single plane.

The Traveller's Palm is the brand symbol of hospitality, and linked to a delightful legend. In ancient times, the tree was a welcome sight, as water stored in the base of the leaves quenched travellers' thirsts and soothed their parched throats, while the east-west orientation of the leaves provided a compass-like guide.

This perfectly encapsulates Raffles' welcoming nature and unbridled spirit of hospitality.

“Day by day, minute by minute, awe-inspiring moment by awe-inspiring moment”

Synonymous with luxury since 1887

When Raffles debuted in 1887, it was an industry defining moment. Elegant, charming and welcoming, the brand set a new benchmark for ultra-luxury hospitality that has stood the test of time.

Today the Raffles name is synonymous with luxury, glamour and extraordinary adventure, underpinned by a service culture that is truly legendary.

From the butler to the doorman, housekeeper to the gardener, the Raffles service is attentive and graceful. Small details and thoughtful touches create rich experiences and the fondest of memories; an emotional luxury exclusive to the brand.

At Raffles, luxury is not just about what you do, it's about how you feel.

The Raffles legacy is global, embodied in a sublime collection of hotels, resorts and residences in locations as iconic as the brand.

Every property tells the Raffles story in its own unique way, influenced by its destination. From the classic colonial splendour of Raffles Singapore where it all began.

Each is uniquely, indefinably, sublimely Raffles.

“As guest expectations have elevated over the decades, Raffles has carried on exceeding them”

And with Raffles, everything changed...

When debuted in 1887, no one could have predicted the Raffles brand would set a new benchmark for gracious hospitality that today, remains unparalleled.

Attention to the finest of details and anticipating guest needs, the legendary Raffles service is subtle, intuitive and thoughtful at every property in every location.
