

PLAGETTE 32

An aerial view of a modern, luxurious resort complex. The central feature is a large, multi-level swimming pool with turquoise water, surrounded by numerous lounge chairs and palm trees. In the foreground, a wide, sandy beach meets the clear, shallow turquoise water of a lagoon. People are seen relaxing on the beach and swimming in the water. The resort buildings are modern with light-colored facades and large glass windows. The background shows a dense residential area with many small, modern houses.
